how to get to Stirling Management Centre

by air ✈

You can fly to either Edinburgh or Glasgow Airports. Edinburgh Airport is a 45 minute drive away, while Glasgow Airport is approximately a 1 hour 20 minute drive to Stirling Management Centre.

You can fly to either Edinburgh or Glasgow Airports from a wide range of international and domestic airports.

It may be the case, however, that if you are flying in from a country that does not go direct to either of these airports that your journey will have to go via one of the London airports. There are very regular shuttle flights to both Glasgow and Edinburgh from London.

Frequent coach transfers are available from each of the two airports to their respective city centres. From there, visitors can access the frequent and reliable train services which run to Stirling from both Edinburgh and Glasgow by rail

Stirling's location in the heart of Scotland ensures that the city enjoys excellent rail links with all major Scottish cities and, in turn, with the rest of the UK.

Regular Scotrail train services run from both Edinburgh Waverley Station and Glasgow Queen Street Station. Details of all Scotrail services can be found at:

www.firstgroup.com/scotrail

It is recommended that you alight at Stirling train station (not Bridge of Allan) and then make your way to the University by bus or taxi. Taxis are available from Stirling Rail Station concourse, with most buses to the University departing from Murray Place bus stop located just up the hill from the rail station.

If you are coming from further afield the following can be used as a guide for rail travel times to Stirling Station:-

From here you should take the exit for Bridge of Allan, follow the road through the town itself, and after about 200 metres you will find the University on the left.

If approaching from the North take the A9 to the same roundabout (Junction 11) and follow the same route through Bridge of Allan as above.

From the North- A9 via Perth and Bridge of Allan.

From the East -A91 from St Andrews, M9 from Edinburgh.

From the West - M8, A80, M80, M9 from Glasgow.

Visitors to the University are advised that a vehicle access barrier system operates on campus, from September to May inclusive.

Visitors are requested to enter the University via the main entrance, and, keeping to the left hand, Visitors' Lane, stop at the manned booth to collect a Visitors' Parking Permit. Please note that possession of a valid permit does not guarantee a parking space. Follow the road straight up, over the mini roundabout and you will come to a second set of barriers and Stirling Management Centre and car park.
